If you are not a member of St. Mark or St. Paul's Lutheran Church or a sister WELS or ELS congregation, a Bible information class conducted by our pastor is required to be taken within the first full year of enrollment.

All children enrolled in this school are expected to attend church services regularly.

This information does not assure final enrollment, which is subject to the action of the principal and the Board of Education. Children who transfer into Risen Savior from another school are accepted on a probationary/ trial basis for one semester. A personal interview will be arranged between the principal and the applicant's parents prior to the acceptance of the applicant.
